- We kindly request your assistance in ensuring that your child's notebooks are properly covered with brown cover and a name tag on top. Additionally, please ensure that your child wears a properly washed uniform while coming to school. We believe that good hygiene plays a crucial role in fostering better health and enhancing learning outcomes for our students. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.
- As parents, it's important to provide support and encouragement to the children as they face their shortcomings and prepare for the new Academic Session. By acknowledging their strengths and helping them work on areas where they may need improvement, we can empower them to overcome challenges and achieve their goals. Remember, our belief in their abilities can greatly influence their motivation and success.
- Doon Fraternity anticipates an exquisite commencing for the upcoming Session 2024-2025.

Good Luck!
