“THE POWER OF GIRL”

She walks with dreams in hopeful eyes,
Reaching stars across the skies.
With gentle words and courage true,
She knows what she is meant to do.
She learns, she grows, she loves to lead,
With kindness guiding every deed.
Books in hand and goals so bright,
She turns her future into light.
Give her wings, let her fly,
Let her voice be strong and high
A girl today, brave and free, building tomorrow's destiny.

बसंत पंचमी

बसंत पंचमी भारत के प्रमुख त्योहारों में आता है। यह माघ मास की शुक्ल पक्ष की पंचमी तिथि को मनाया जाता है। यह त्योहार पूरे भारत में भिन्न-भिन्न प्रकार से मनाया जाता है। यह दिन माँ सरस्वती को समर्पित होता है, जो ज्ञान व कला आदि की देवी हैं। इस दिन प्रकृति में नई ऊर्जा दिखाई देती है— खेतों में सरसों के फूल खिलने लग जाते हैं और वातावरण में उल्लास छा जाता है। बसंत पंचमी पर लोग पीले वस्त्र पहनते हैं, घरों को पीले फूलों से सजाते हैं, केसरिया हलवा जैसी मिठाईयाँ बनाई जाती हैं। इस पर्व का संबंध भगवान कृष्ण से भी है। उनको यह ऋतु बेहद प्यारी है। ब्रज में बसंत पंचमी के दिन से ही होली प्रारंभ हो जाती है। यह दिन भगवान की रासलीला और राधा कृष्ण के प्रेम से भी संबंधित है।

MAHA SANKRANTI

Mahasankranti, is a great festival celebrated on 14th January every year. The name 'Mahasankranti' originates from the birds, 'Makar' and 'Sankranti' where Makar means Capricorn and Sankranti meaning transition. In Mahasankranti we observe the Sun's transition to Capricorn. Mahasankranti is also known as the Harvest festival of India and Nepal as it is the season where all the crops are ready to be reaped. On this festival, we worship the Sun God and observe holy bath in rivers. It is believed that taking a holy dip in the Ganga river during Mahasankranti washes all our sins. Charity is a very important part of Mahasankranti. The one who donates wheat, rice and sweets to the people in need, God will bring opportunities and happiness in their lives and remove all difficulties.

Mahasankranti is celebrated by different names such as 'Pongol' in South India, 'Magh Bihu' in Assam and 'Khichdi' in Bihar. From Mahasankranti, winter fades and days start becoming longer.
